

Cell Phone Policy

Wabasso Public Library

Purpose

The use of cell phones in the Library can often prove disruptive to patrons and staff. The Wabasso Public Library attempts to promote a user-friendly environment conducive to reading, studying, research, and use of the Library's technology.

Expectations

All library patrons are expected to be courteous and respectful of others by adhering to the following policies:

- Turn off your cell phone or change the ring tone to silent or vibrate before entering the Wabasso Public Library.
- Please move outside for cell phone conversations.
- The Library reserves the right to ask a patron to leave the Library if they are using their cell phone in an inappropriate manner AND/OR disturbing other patrons.
- All of the above will apply to regular and hands free phones.

Library patrons who refuse to comply with the provisions or intent of this policy will be required to leave the Library.
