

Displays and Exhibits Policy

Wabasso Public Library

Purpose

As an educational and cultural institution, the Wabasso Public Library welcomes exhibits and displays from organizations, groups, and individuals who seek to enrich the community or draw attention to a subject of general interest.

General

Displays of handiwork, historical material, nature study, or any other material deemed of general interest may be exhibited. The Director shall have discretion to accept or reject material offered for display.

The Library assumes no responsibility for the preservation, protection, or possible damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items and private possessions that are placed in the Library are done so at the owner's risk.
